

I think the NJ Do Not Call law should remain in effect as it is. Unwanted calls are being stopped. Consumers should have a right to have these calls blocked. Telemarketers never took no for an answer before and regularly interrupted family time. This has been the only way to stop it. Please do not attack the NJ law. NJ citizens have gained some peace from this pesky problem